Montague's Balm. An Indian remedy for the Tooth-Ache.

HE established reputation and constantly increasing demand for this effectual remedy of pain and preservative of the teeth, has induced the subscriber to offer it to the Americas public. Arrangements have been made to supply agents in all the principal cities and towns in the United States, so as to place it within the reach of those suffering and likely to suffer with this most harassing of all Aches-Tooth Ache. When applied according to directions given on the bottle, it has never failed to afford immediate and permanent relief. It also arrests the decay in defective teeth, and relieves the soreness which so fre quently renders a strong tooth useless. The application and remedy are simple, innocent, and not unpleasant; and the large number of persons in different sections of the country, that have already experienced such delightful and salutary effects from the use of the Balm, are ready to bear, (for the public goos,) their testimony, to its unrivaled qualities. It is an Indian remedy obtained singularly and unexpectedly, and may be regarded by the civilized world as the most valuable discovery of the Red

OTHER'S COMFORT. This medicine has been prepared with special reference con, Mississippi. to the wants of families, in which the most minute particularity has been observed, in order that mo there might keep and use it with the most perfect safety, and with the confident assurance that it will afford relief when very many of the standard rem-edies fail. The proprietor, before offering it to the public, has taken occasion to converse with some distinguished physicians of Virginia, and with special panes to speak of all the various parts and pro-portions of this medicine; and those that know its emponent parts, have pronounced its one of the very best compounds for the following diseases that can be prepared, and may be used with perfect safely, as well with the new born babe, as the man o three score and tex. If those that use it are not satisfied that it is the very best remedy for the diseases here coumerated, they can return the buttle and receive back their money. It is boldly asserted that it is almost (if not quite) infallible in Diarrhea in all its various forms, Dysentary, Cramp-colic, Choiera Morbus, and Asiatic Choiera; also, After Pains of ying-in Females-for this it is the Mother's Comfort, and because it is the very best preparation for the summer diseases of children that has yet entered the chamber of the distressed. It is also me qualled for cramps from whatever cause produced. Ladies in the most delicate situations may take it under any of the above circumstances with perfect safety and equal benefit. DAILY LINE OF U. S. MAIL COACHES.

From Vicksburg to Jackson. FINE subscribers have the pleasure of informing the public that they have established a Daily Line of four horse Post Coaches from Vicksburg via. Amsterdam, Raymond and Clinton, to Jackson, which will leave Vicksburg and Jackson every day regularly. Their old and well known line via. Bridgeport and Clinton to Jackson is also in complete operation, passengers therefore can always rely upon an immediate conveyance, as two stages will leave Vicksburg every morning for Jackson, and vice versa. They have also established a tri-weekly line of U. S. mail coaches from Grand Gulf via. Raymond, Clinton and Jackson, to Brandon. Passengers travelling on the Vicksburg daily line will intersect the line to Brandon at Jackson, and also the line to Columbus, Miss. They have also established a daily line of stages from Port Gibson to Grand Gulf, so that passengers from the river can alway get a direct passage to any part of the interior of the state .-They would also inform the public that they are now establishing a new and splendid line of four horse post coaches, (which will be in full operation by the first of January next) from Manchester via. Benton, Lexington, Carrollton and Grenada, to Colleeville, there intersecting with the stage line to Pontotoe, and from thence to Tuscumbia, Ala., intersecting also with the line leading from Pontotoc to Columbus, Miss, and from Coffeeville to Holly Springs, and from Holly Springs to Grenada, Tenn-there into secting the main line to Nashville, intersecting also with a line from Holly Springs to Memohis, Tenn. All of the coaches on the above routes are of the best Troy manufacture, and the most experienced agents are employed to conduct them .-Every attention will be shown to persons travelling on these lines, and to the safe transportation of baggage.

Noxubee Turnpike for Sale. HE subscribers offer for sale the above property. Its location on the Robinson Road, leading from Columbus to Jackson, is too well known to require a particular description. Few situations present the same inducements to the capitalist. As a tavern, or mercantile stand, it is perhaps unequalled in the State. With these advantages, in addition to its daily income, no property at this time can afford a more profitable investment. Attached to the Turnpike, which will soon be placed in complete repair, are 960 acres of land, a small proportion of which is cleared. For terms, or further particulars,
